Private Security Act 2004
Act No. 33/2004

Version incorporating amendments as at 5 April 2005

The Parliament of Victoria enacts as follows:

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1. Purposes

The purposes of this Act are—

- (a) to provide for the licensing and registration of certain participants in the private security industry; and
- (b) to otherwise regulate the private security industry for the purposes of ensuring public safety and peace; and
- (c) to amend the Private Agents Act 1966; and
- (d) to make consequential amendments to the Major Events (Crowd Management) Act 2003, the Melbourne and Olympic Parks Act 1985, the Firearms Act 1996, the Casino Control Act 1991, the Gaming Machine Control Act 1991, the Gaming No. 2 Act 1997 and the Gambling Regulation Act 2003.

2. Commencement

- (1) Section 1, this section and Division 2 of Part 12 come into operation on the day after the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.

- (2) Subject to sub-section (3), the remaining provisions of this Act come into operation on a day or days to be proclaimed.
- (3) If a provision referred to in sub-section (2) does not come into operation before 1 July 2005, it comes into operation on that day.

 - (A) the nominated person of the body corporate; and
 - (B) any other officers of the body corporate; and
 - (C) any person who is a close associate of the applicant—that is, in the case of a statement relating to a close associate, signed by the close associate; and
 - (ii) proof of identity of each person named in the statement, being, if the Chief Commissioner so requires, proof by way of the specified identification method; and
 - (iii) two written references from a prescribed class of person for each person named in the statement.

18. Applicant to advertise application

- (1) An applicant for a private security business licence must—
 - (a) within 7 days after the day on which an application is lodged with the Chief Commissioner, cause to be advertised in a daily newspaper circulating generally in Victoria, a notice setting out—
 - (i) the fact that the applicant has made the application; and
 - (ii) the business name and business address of the applicant; and
 - (iii) the class of licence being applied for; and
 - (iv) the fact that a person may object (under sub-section (2)) to the granting of a licence; and
 - (v) the period within which an objection to the granting of a licence must be lodged with the Chief Commissioner; and
 - (b) within 14 days after the day on which an application is lodged with the Chief Commissioner, provide the Chief Commissioner with a copy of the advertisement including the date the advertisement was published.
 - (2) A person may object to the granting of a private security business licence by setting out the grounds of the objection in a written submission forwarded to the Chief Commissioner.
 - (3) In determining the application, the Chief Commissioner must consider any submission received by him or her within 14 days after the day of the publication of the advertisement, unless he or she is satisfied that the submission is frivolous, vexatious or irrelevant to the grant of a licence to the applicant.

19. Consideration of application by Chief Commissioner

The Chief Commissioner must consider every application for a private security licence.

20. Power of Chief Commissioner to investigate application

In considering an application for a private security licence the Chief Commissioner may, in order to ascertain whether the criteria set out in section 25 or 26 (as the case requires) are satisfied, conduct any investigation or make any inquiry that he or she thinks fit.

21. Particular powers of Chief Commissioner relating to known information

In conducting an investigation or making an inquiry under section 20, the Chief Commissioner may—

- (a) in the case of an application for a private security individual operator licence, have regard to any known information about the applicant that is relevant to the application; or
- (b) in the case of an application for a private security business licence by a natural person, have regard to any known information about the person or a close associate of the person that is relevant to the application; or
- (c) in the case of an application for a private security business licence by a body corporate, have regard to any known information (that is relevant to the application) about—
 - (i) the body corporate; and

- (ii) the nominated person; and
- (iii) any officer of the body corporate; and
- (iv) any close associate of the body corporate.

22. Particular powers of Chief Commissioner relating to fingerprinting

- (1) In conducting an investigation or making an inquiry under section 20, the Chief Commissioner may require a full set of fingerprints to be provided to him or her of any of the following persons to provide proof of their identity—
 - (a) in the case of an application for a private security individual operator licence, the applicant;
 - (b) in the case of an application for a private security business licence by a natural person, the person or a close associate of the person;
 - (c) in the case of an application for a private security business licence by a body corporate—
 - (i) the nominated person;
 - (ii) any officer of the body corporate;
 - (iii) any close associate of the body corporate.
- (2) The Chief Commissioner may not request a full set of fingerprints under sub-section (1) unless—
 - (a) there is reasonable doubt as to the identity of the applicant, a close associate of the applicant, the nominated person or an officer of the body corporate (as the case may be); and
 - (b) proof of the identity cannot be ascertained by other reasonably available means.

Private Security Act 2004
Act No. 33/2004

Part 3—Licensing Private Security Operators

s. 23

- (3) If any fingerprints are provided to the Chief Commissioner under this section, the Chief Commissioner must ensure that—
- (a) the fingerprints are destroyed—
 - (i) within 28 days after they are no longer required in connection with the application to which they relate; or
 - (ii) no later than 6 months from the date they were provided—whichever is the earlier; and
 - (b) the applicant, the close associate of the applicant, the nominated person or the officer of the body corporate (as the case may be), is notified of the destruction as soon as practicable.
- (4) Fingerprints that are provided to the Chief Commissioner under this section are not admissible as evidence in any proceedings.

23. Information and documents to be provided

For the purposes of an inquiry or investigation under section 20, the Chief Commissioner may require by a notice in writing to an applicant—

- (a) that the Chief Commissioner be provided with any information, relevant to the application and specified in the notice, in the manner required by the Chief Commissioner (and verified by a statutory declaration if necessary) if the Chief Commissioner is of the opinion that the information relates to the applicant, a close associate of the applicant, the nominated person or an officer of the body corporate (as the case requires); or

- (b) that any record, relevant to the application and specified in the notice, be produced to the Chief Commissioner if the Chief Commissioner is of the opinion that the record relates to the applicant, a close associate of the applicant, the nominated person or an officer of the body corporate (as the case requires); or
 - (c) that any record produced to the Chief Commissioner under paragraph (b) be made available for inspection and for the taking of copies.

24. Chief Commissioner may refuse to make a decision on an application for a licence

The Chief Commissioner may refuse to make a decision on an application for a private security licence if the applicant does not comply with any requirement of the Chief Commissioner under this Division in relation to the application within a reasonable time of the requirement being made.

Division 3—Granting and Renewal of Private Security Licences

25. Circumstances in which the Chief Commissioner must refuse to grant a private security individual operator licence

- (1) The Chief Commissioner must not grant a private security individual operator licence if—
 - (a) he or she is satisfied that the granting of the licence is not in the public interest; or
 - (b) he or she is not satisfied that the applicant meets the probity requirements set out in sub-section (2); or

Act No. 33/2004

Part 3—Licensing Private Security Operators

- (c) he or she is not satisfied that the applicant meets the competency requirement set out in sub-section (3).
- (2) For the purposes of sub-section (1)(b) the probity requirements are that the person—
- (a) is fit and proper; and
 - (b) is aged 18 years or more; and
 - (c) has not contravened or failed to comply with any provision of this Act, the regulations or any corresponding previous enactment, to the extent that warrants the refusal of the licence; and
 - (d) is not a prohibited person; and
 - (e) is not a person in relation to whom—
 - (i) not more than 10 years have expired since that person was convicted of a particular indictable offence that in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner would render the person unsuitable to hold a private security licence; or
 - (ii) not more than 5 years have expired since that person has been found guilty (without a conviction being recorded) of a particular indictable offence that in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner would render the person unsuitable to hold a private security licence; and
 - (f) is not a person who is charged with—
 - (i) a particular indictable offence that in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner would render the person unsuitable to hold a private security licence; or
 - (ii) a disqualifying offence.

- (3) For the purposes of sub-section (1)(c), the competency requirement is that the person has successfully completed any approved training requirements or has the experience or training approved by the Chief Commissioner as relevant to each activity or any aspect of each such activity that the person is authorised to carry on under the licence.

26. Circumstances in which the Chief Commissioner must refuse to grant a private security business licence

- (1) The Chief Commissioner must not grant a private security business licence if—
- (a) he or she is satisfied that the granting of the licence is not in the public interest; or
 - (b) he or she is not satisfied that each relevant person in relation to the application meets the probity requirements set out in sub-section (2); or
 - (c) he or she is satisfied that the applicant (if the applicant is a body corporate) has been convicted or found guilty of an offence, which in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner, warrants the refusal of the licence; or
 - (d) he or she is not satisfied that the applicant or (if the applicant is a body corporate) the nominated person meets the competency requirements set out in sub-section (3); or
 - (e) the applicant, or nominated person (in the case of a body corporate) has not produced, in relation to the business—
 - (i) a certificate of currency for public liability insurance; and

- (ii) evidence, to the satisfaction of the Chief Commissioner, of compliance with existing statutory workplace obligations; or
 - (f) he or she is not satisfied that the applicant has or will be able to obtain financial resources that are adequate to ensure the financial viability of the business.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-section (1)(b) the probity requirements are that the person—
- (a) is fit and proper; and
 - (b) is aged 18 years or more; and
 - (c) has not contravened or failed to comply with any provision of this Act, the regulations or any corresponding previous enactment, to the extent that warrants the refusal of the licence; and
 - (d) is not a prohibited person; and
 - (e) is not a person in relation to whom—
 - (i) not more than 10 years have expired since that person was convicted of a particular indictable offence that in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner would render the person unsuitable to hold a private security licence or to be involved or connected with a business carried on under a private security licence; or
 - (ii) not more than 5 years have expired since that person has been found guilty (without a conviction being recorded) of a particular indictable offence that in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner would render the person unsuitable to hold a private security licence or to be

- involved or connected with a business carried on under a private security licence; and
- (f) is not a person who is charged with—
- (i) a particular indictable offence that in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner would render the person unsuitable to hold a private security licence or to be involved or connected with a business carried on under a private security licence; or
 - (ii) a disqualifying offence; and
- (g) has not, within the preceding 5 years, been declared bankrupt; and
- (h) is not insolvent under administration.
- (3) For the purposes of sub-section (1)(d), the competency requirements are that the person—
- (a) is a member of one or more approved security industry organisations, membership of which the Chief Commissioner considers is relevant to each activity or any aspect of each activity authorised under the licence; or
 - (b) possesses the qualifications, knowledge, training or experience approved by the Chief Commissioner in relation to each activity or any aspect of each activity authorised under the licence.
- (4) In this section "relevant person in relation to an application" means—
- (a) in the case of an application by a natural person for a private security business licence, the applicant for the licence and any close associate of the applicant;

Private Security Act 2004
Act No. 33/2004

- (b) in the case of an application by a body corporate for a private security business licence, each of the following—
- (i) the nominated person for the body corporate;
 - (ii) any officer of the body corporate;
 - (iii) any close associate of the body corporate.

27. Notice that private security licence may be refused

- (1) If the Chief Commissioner is proposing not to grant a private security licence for any reason other than that set out in sub-section (2), the Chief Commissioner must, before deciding not to grant the licence, serve on the applicant a notice—
- (a) specifying the reason why the Chief Commissioner is proposing not to grant the licence; and
 - (b) inviting the applicant to make a written submission in accordance with sub-section (3).
- (2) If the Chief Commissioner is proposing not to grant a private security licence because he or she is satisfied that the applicant, a close associate of the applicant or, if the applicant is a body corporate, the nominated person or an officer of the body corporate, is a prohibited person, the Chief Commissioner must serve on—
- (a) the applicant; and
 - (b) any person who the Chief Commissioner is satisfied is a prohibited person—a notice specifying the reason why the licence is not to be granted.

Part 3—Licensing Private Security Operators

- (3) An applicant who has been served with a notice under sub-section (1) may, within 28 days after the day on which the applicant is served with the notice, make a submission to the Chief Commissioner concerning any reason that is specified in the notice.

28. Further consideration of application and convening of hearing

- (1) After receiving a submission within the time specified under section 27(3), the Chief Commissioner may—
- (a) further consider the application; or
 - (b) after giving notice to the applicant, convene a hearing to further consider the application.
- (2) An applicant may be represented at a hearing by any person the applicant chooses, but is not entitled to receive any costs in respect of a hearing.
- (3) The Chief Commissioner may arrange for an electronic recording of a hearing to be made.
- (4) The Chief Commissioner—
- (a) must retain any electronic recording of a hearing for a period of no less than 3 months from the date of the hearing; and
 - (b) may destroy the recording at the end of the period under paragraph (a).

29. Refusal of private security licence

The Chief Commissioner must not make a decision not to grant a private security licence unless the Chief Commissioner has—

- (a) considered any written submission made by the applicant within the time specified in the notice under section 27(1) for making such a submission; and

- (b) if a hearing is convened under section 28, considered any oral submission made by the applicant at the hearing, if the applicant has indicated to the Chief Commissioner within any time specified in the notice under section 28(1)(b) that he or she wishes to be heard at such a hearing.

30. Application and licence fees

- (1) The prescribed application fee for an application for a licence under this Part must be paid by the person applying for the licence.
- (2) The prescribed licence fee for a licence under this Part must be paid by the holder of the licence.
- (3) Sub-sections (1) and (2) do not apply to a person who applies for a private security business licence and who is in partnership with another person who has paid an application fee and licence fee prescribed for the licence to carry on the business that is carried on by the partnership.

31. Chief Commissioner may impose conditions on licence

- (1) The Chief Commissioner may impose a condition on a private security licence—
 - (a) relating to any of the following—
 - (i) the completion of any approved training requirements or other training determined by the Chief Commissioner as appropriate in respect of the licence;
 - (ii) the carriage and use of equipment to be used in carrying on the activities authorised by the licence;
 - (iii) the notification of any serious medical or psychiatric condition or impairment that directly impacts on the licence holder's ability to carry on the activities authorised under the licence;

(iv) the supervision of the licence holder in carrying on activities authorised by the licence; or

(b) that is prescribed; or

(c) that the Chief Commissioner thinks fit to impose.

(2) The Chief Commissioner may impose on a private security individual operator licence that authorises a person to carry on an activity, a condition that the person is only authorised by the licence to carry on the aspect of the activity that is specified in the licence.

32. Failure to comply with licence condition

The holder of a private security licence must comply with any conditions imposed on the licence.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

33. Licence granted on condition that training be completed

The Chief Commissioner may grant a private security individual operator licence that authorises the carrying on of one or more class A security activities, subject to the condition that the holder of the licence—

(a) satisfactorily complete the competency requirement under section 25(3) within a period specified by the Chief Commissioner of no more than 12 months; and

- (b) carry on one or more of those activities under the supervision of the holder of a private security individual operator licence that authorises the carrying on of the activity or activities until the approved training course or other training (as the case may be) has been completed.

34. Duration of licences

A private security licence continues in force for the period specified in the licence document, which may be up to 3 years from the grant of the licence, unless it is suspended or cancelled.

35. Power of Chief Commissioner to renew licences

On the expiration of a private security licence, the Chief Commissioner may renew the licence.

36. Application to renew a licence

- (1) Before a private security licence expires, the holder of the licence may apply to the Chief Commissioner for the renewal of the licence.
- (2) An application under sub-section (1) must—
 - (a) be in a form approved by the Chief Commissioner; and
 - (b) contain any prescribed particulars; and
 - (c) be accompanied by any prescribed documents or prescribed information.
- (3) The powers of the Chief Commissioner under sections 20 to 24 apply in respect of an application for renewal of a private security licence as if it were an application for a private security licence.
- (4) A private security licence, in respect of which an application is made under this section, is deemed to continue in force, after the expiry of the licence period, until the Chief Commissioner makes a decision in relation to the application.

37. Circumstances in which the Chief Commissioner must refuse to renew a licence

The Chief Commissioner must not renew a private security licence unless he or she is satisfied that any relevant criteria set out in sections 25 and 26, with such modifications as are necessary, are satisfied by the applicant.

38. Sections 27 to 29 to apply as if application for renewal of licence is application for licence

Sections 27 to 29 apply in respect of an application for a renewal of a private security licence as if it were an application for a private security licence.

39. Application and renewal fees

- (1) A person who has applied for the renewal of a private security licence must pay—
 - (a) the prescribed application fee for consideration of the application by the Chief Commissioner; and
 - (b) the prescribed renewal fee for the renewal of the licence.
- (2) Sub-section (1) does not apply to a person who applies for the renewal of a private security business licence and who is in partnership with another person who has paid an application fee and renewal fee prescribed for the renewal of the licence to carry on the business that is carried on by the partnership.

40. Chief Commissioner to issue licence documents

Upon granting or renewing a private security licence, the Chief Commissioner must issue to the applicant a private security licence document in accordance with the regulations.

Division 4—Variation and Requested Cancellation of Private Security Licences

41. Power of Chief Commissioner to vary licence on own motion

- (1) The Chief Commissioner may, on the Chief Commissioner's own motion—
 - (a) vary or revoke a condition on a private security licence, other than a prescribed condition; or
 - (b) impose a condition on the licence.
- (2) Before making a variation under this section, the Chief Commissioner must—
 - (a) notify the holder of the licence; and
 - (b) allow the holder an opportunity to make written submissions.
- (3) Submissions under sub-section (2) must be made within the period specified in the notice.
- (4) The powers of the Chief Commissioner under sections 20 to 24 apply in respect of a variation made by the Chief Commissioner under this section as if it were an application for a private security licence.
- (5) In deciding whether or not to make a variation under this section, the Chief Commissioner must—
 - (a) have regard to submissions made under sub-section (2) within the period for making submissions; and
 - (b) notify the holder of the licence of the Chief Commissioner's decision.

- (4) A person who has applied for a variation to a private security licence under this section must pay the prescribed application fee for consideration of the application by the Chief Commissioner.
 - (5) Sub-section (4) does not apply to a person who applies for a variation to a private security business licence and who is in partnership with another person who has paid the application fee prescribed for the variation to the licence to carry on the business that is carried on by the partnership.
 - (6) The powers of the Chief Commissioner under sections 20 to 24 apply in respect of an application under this section as if it were an application for a private security licence.
 - (7) The Chief Commissioner must notify the holder of the licence of his or her decision under this section.

44. Issue and surrender of licence document

- (1) On varying a private security licence under section 41, 42 or 43, the Chief Commissioner must issue to the holder of the licence that has been varied, a private security licence document in accordance with the regulations.
- (2) On a private security licence being varied under section 41, 42 or 43, the holder of the licence must surrender the licence document of the licence that has been varied to the Chief Commissioner within 7 days after the day on which the variation takes effect.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

45. Cancellation of licence or authority to carry on activity on licence holder's request

- (1) The holder of a private security licence may request that the Chief Commissioner—
 - (a) cancel the licence; or
 - (b) cancel an authority under the licence—
 - (i) to provide the services of others to carry on a class A security activity; or
 - (ii) to carry on a class A security activity.
- (2) If a request is made under sub-section (1)(a), the Chief Commissioner may cancel the licence.
- (3) The holder of a licence cancelled under sub-section (2) must surrender the licence document to the Chief Commissioner within 7 days after the day on which the cancellation takes effect.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.
- (4) If a request is made under sub-section (1)(b), the Chief Commissioner may cancel the authority.
- (5) If the Chief Commissioner cancels an authority under a licence under sub-section (4), he or she must issue to the holder of the licence a private security licence document in accordance with the regulations.
- (6) The holder of a licence in respect of which an authority has been cancelled under sub-section (4) must surrender the licence document to the Chief Commissioner within 7 days after the day on which the cancellation takes effect.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

Division 5—Disciplinary Proceedings

46. Definition

In this Division "disciplinary inquiry" means an inquiry under section 50.

47. Immediate cancellation of private security licence

(1) Immediately on becoming aware that—

- (a) the holder of a private security licence; or
- (b) in the case of a private security licence which is held by a body corporate, an officer of the body corporate—is a prohibited person the Chief Commissioner must cancel the licence.

(2) The Chief Commissioner must notify the holder of the licence of the cancellation of the licence.

48. Complaints

(1) A person who is affected by the conduct of the holder of a private security licence that is carried on under the licence may make a complaint to the Chief Commissioner about that conduct.

(2) A complaint under sub-section (1) must be made to the Chief Commissioner within 3 months of the taking place of the conduct that is the subject of the complaint, or, if the Chief Commissioner so agrees, at any later time.

49. Investigation of complaints

The Chief Commissioner must cause any complaint made under section 48 to be investigated to determine whether or not there are grounds under section 50 for conducting a disciplinary inquiry, if the complaint is not frivolous or vexatious.

50. Power of Chief Commissioner to hold disciplinary inquiry

If the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that there are grounds for believing that—

- (a) the holder of a private security licence, if that holder applied for a new licence, would be refused such a licence, (other than in circumstances in which section 47 applies); or
- (b) the holder of a private security licence has contravened any condition to which the licence is subject; or
- (c) the holder of a private security licence has engaged in conduct in carrying on any activity authorised by the licence that is unfair, dishonest or discreditable—

the Chief Commissioner may hold an inquiry into the matter.

51. Interim suspension of licence or authority

- (1) On making a decision to conduct a disciplinary inquiry the Chief Commissioner may—
 - (a) suspend the licence; or
 - (b) suspend an authority under the licence—
 - (i) to provide the services of others to carry on a class A security activity; or
 - (ii) to carry on a class A security activity.
 - (2) The Chief Commissioner must serve notice of a suspension under sub-section (1) on the holder of the licence.
 - (3) A notice under sub-section (2) must state the nature of the suspension and contain all the things specified in section 52(1).

Private Security Act 2004
Act No. 33/2004

Part 3—Licensing Private Security Operators

s. 52

- (4) A suspension under this section remains in force until—
- (a) the Chief Commissioner decides to take an action under section 56; or
 - (b) if the Chief Commissioner decides to take no action under section 56, the making of that decision.

52. Notice to licence holder who is the subject of a disciplinary inquiry

- (1) The Chief Commissioner must serve on a holder of a licence, in respect of whom the Chief Commissioner has decided to hold a disciplinary inquiry, a notice—
- (a) stating that the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that there are grounds for holding a disciplinary inquiry; and
 - (b) setting out those grounds; and
 - (c) specifying whether, during the inquiry, submissions may be made by the licence holder orally or in writing; and
 - (d) setting out the time within which written submissions may be made to the Chief Commissioner regarding an action that he or she may take under section 56.
- (2) This section does not apply if the Chief Commissioner has served a notice on the holder under section 51(2).

53. Further notice as to oral submissions

If the Chief Commissioner has specified in a notice under section 52(1) that oral submissions may be made during the disciplinary inquiry, he or she must serve on the holder of the licence a notice—

Private Security Act 2004
Act No. 33/2004

Part 3—Licensing Private Security Operators

s. 54

- (a) advising the holder of the day on which the submissions may be made; and
- (b) advising the holder of their entitlements under section 54(1).

54. Procedures at oral hearing

- (1) The holder of a licence served with a notice under section 53 may make oral submissions personally or by way of a representative at the hearing.
- (2) The Chief Commissioner may adjourn the hearing at any time before or during the hearing.
- (3) At the hearing, the Chief Commissioner is not bound by rules or practice as to evidence and may inform himself or herself in relation to any matter in any manner he or she thinks appropriate.
- (4) At the hearing, the Chief Commissioner may proceed in the absence of a party or interested person who has had reasonable notice of the hearing.
- (5) The Chief Commissioner may arrange for an electronic recording of the hearing to be made.
- (6) The Chief Commissioner—
 - (a) must retain any electronic recording made of a hearing for a period of no less than 3 months from the date of the hearing; and
 - (b) may destroy the recording at the end of the period under paragraph (a).
- (7) A—
 - (a) holder of a licence appearing before a hearing; or
 - (b) person appearing before such a hearing—
is not entitled to receive any costs in respect of the hearing.

55. Powers of Chief Commissioner at disciplinary inquiry

For the purposes of a disciplinary inquiry, the Chief Commissioner has the same powers as are set out in sections 20 to 24 subject to any necessary modifications.

56. Actions Chief Commissioner may take at inquiry

If, after considering all the material available to the Chief Commissioner during a disciplinary inquiry, the Chief Commissioner is of the opinion that a ground set out under section 52(1)(b) has been established in relation to a private security licence, the Chief Commissioner may decide to do any one or more of the following—

- (a) take no further action;
- (b) reprimand the holder of the licence;
- (c) impose or vary a condition on the licence;
- (d) suspend the licence for a specified period of no more than one year;
- (e) suspend an authority under the licence—
 - (i) to provide the services of others to carry on a class A security activity; or
 - (ii) to carry on a class A security activity—
for a specified period of no more than one year;
- (f) cancel the licence;
- (g) cancel an authority under the licence—
 - (i) to provide the services of others to carry on a class A security activity; or
 - (ii) to carry on a class A security activity;

- (h) order that the holder of a licence cancelled under this section not be entitled to apply for a private security licence for a specified period of no more than 5 years from the date that cancellation takes effect;
- (i) order that the holder of a licence in respect of which an authority has been cancelled under this section, not be entitled to apply for a variation of the licence to include the authority that has been cancelled for a specified period of no more than 5 years from the date that cancellation takes effect.

57. Notice of Chief Commissioner's decision

The Chief Commissioner must notify the holder of a licence as to his or her decision under section 56 and must set out the reasons for that decision.

58. When decision under section 56 takes effect

If the Chief Commissioner decides to take an action under section 56, the decision takes effect on and from the later of—

- (a) the date that the notice under section 57 is served; or
- (b) the date that is specified by the Chief Commissioner in that notice.

59. Surrender and issue of licence document upon cancellation or suspension

- (1) The holder of a private security licence—
 - (a) cancelled or suspended under this Division by the Chief Commissioner; or
 - (b) in respect of which an authority—
 - (i) to provide the services of others to carry on a class A security activity; or

Private Security Act 2004
Act No. 33/2004

Part 3—Licensing Private Security Operators

s. 60

(ii) to carry on a class A security activity—
has been cancelled or suspended under this Division by the Chief Commissioner—must surrender the licence document in respect of that licence to the Chief Commissioner within 7 days after the day on which the cancellation or suspension takes effect.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

- (2) On suspending or cancelling an authority under a private security licence under this Division—
- (a) to provide the services of others to carry on a class A security activity; or
 - (b) to carry on a class A security activity—
- the Chief Commissioner must issue to the holder of the licence, a private security licence document in accordance with the regulations.

60. Inquiry not prevented by other proceedings

The Chief Commissioner may hold a disciplinary inquiry, even though the grounds for the inquiry concern a person who is—

- (a) the holder of a private security licence; or
- (b) a close associate of the holder of a private security licence; or
- (c) if the holder of the private security licence is a body corporate, the nominated person or an officer of the body corporate—and that person is the subject of proposed or current criminal proceedings that relate to those grounds.

61. Court may cancel or suspend licence

If, in any proceedings before a court—

- (a) the holder of a private security licence is convicted or found guilty of—
 - (i) a particular indictable offence; or
 - (ii) an offence against this Act or the regulations; and
- (b) the court is of the opinion that the licence should be suspended or cancelled, the court may—
 - (i) order that the licence be suspended for a period of not more than one year and that the licence document be surrendered to the court; or
 - (ii) order that the licence be cancelled and that the licence document be surrendered to the court and that the holder of the licence not be entitled to apply for such a licence within a specified period of no more than 5 years from the date on which the cancellation takes effect; or
 - (iii) refer the matter to the Chief Commissioner.

62. Surrender of licence document

- (1) The holder of a licence suspended or cancelled under section 61 must surrender the licence document to the court within 7 days after the day notified to the holder as the day on which the suspension or cancellation (as the case may be) takes effect.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

- (2) The Registrar or other relevant officer of the court must immediately forward any licence document surrendered under sub-section (1) and a copy of the order under section 61(b) to the Chief Commissioner.

63. Return of licence document

If a private security licence is suspended under section 61, the Chief Commissioner, on receiving the licence document under section 62, must cause the licence document to be returned to the holder at the end of the suspension period.

Division 6—Temporary Permits

64. Temporary interstate visitor permit to carry out activity

- (1) A person who ordinarily resides in another State or Territory, may apply to the Chief Commissioner for a permit to carry on one or more class A security activities in Victoria that may be authorised to be carried on by a private security individual operator licence if—
- (a) the person produces evidence to the satisfaction of the Chief Commissioner that the person is licensed or registered or otherwise authorised in his or her State or Territory of residence to carry on the activity or activities; or
 - (b) if the law of the State or Territory in which the person is resident does not require a person to be licensed or registered or otherwise authorised to carry on the activity or activities, the Chief Commissioner is satisfied as to the suitability of the person to carry out the activity or activities.

- (2) The holder of a permit under this section does not commit an offence against section 7 or 8 while acting under and in accordance with the permit.

65. Temporary interstate visitor permit to carry on business of providing services

 - (iii) two written references from a prescribed class of person for each person named in the statement.

75. Applicant to advertise application

- (1) An applicant for private security business registration must—
 - (a) within 7 days after the day on which an application is lodged with the Chief Commissioner, cause to be advertised in a daily newspaper circulating generally in Victoria, a notice setting out—
 - (i) the fact that the applicant has made the application; and
 - (ii) the business name and business address of the applicant; and
 - (iii) the class of registration being applied for; and
 - (iv) the fact that a person may object (under sub-section (2)) to the granting of a registration; and
 - (v) the period within which an objection to the granting of a registration must be lodged with the Chief Commissioner; and
 - (b) within 14 days after the day on which an application is lodged with the Chief Commissioner, provide the Chief Commissioner with a copy of the advertisement including the date the advertisement was published.
 - (2) A person may object to the granting of a private security business registration by setting out the grounds of the objection in a written submission forwarded to the Chief Commissioner.
 - (3) In determining the application the Chief Commissioner must consider any submission received by him or her within 14 days after the day of the publication of the advertisement, unless he or she is satisfied that the submission is frivolous, vexatious or irrelevant to the grant of the registration to the applicant.

76. Consideration of application by Chief Commissioner

The Chief Commissioner must consider every application for a private security registration.

77. Power of Chief Commissioner to investigate application

In considering an application for a private security registration the Chief Commissioner may, in order to ascertain whether the criteria set out in section 82 or 83 (as the case requires) are satisfied, conduct any investigation or make any inquiry that he or she thinks fit.

78. Particular powers of Chief Commissioner relating to known information

In conducting an investigation or making an inquiry under section 77, the Chief Commissioner may—

- (a) in the case of an application for a private security individual operator registration, have regard to any known information about the applicant that is relevant to the application; or
- (b) in the case of an application for a private security business registration by a natural person, have regard to any known information about the person or a close associate of the person that is relevant to the application; or
- (c) in the case of an application for a private security business registration by a body corporate, have regard to any known information (that is relevant to the application) about—

- (i) the body corporate; and
- (ii) the nominated person; and
- (iii) any officer of the body corporate; and
- (iv) any close associate of the body corporate.

79. Particular powers of Chief Commissioner relating to fingerprinting

- (1) In conducting an investigation or making an inquiry under section 77, the Chief Commissioner may require a full set of fingerprints to be provided to him or her of any of the following persons to provide proof of their identity—
 - (a) in the case of an application for a private security individual operator registration, the applicant;
 - (b) in the case of an application for a private security business registration by a natural person, the person or a close associate of the person;
 - (c) in the case of an application for a private security business registration by a body corporate—
 - (i) the nominated person;
 - (ii) any officer of the body corporate;
 - (iii) any close associate of the body corporate.
 - (2) The Chief Commissioner may not request a full set of fingerprints under sub-section (1) unless—
 - (a) there is reasonable doubt as to the identity of the applicant, a close associate of the applicant, the nominated person or an officer

Act No. 33/2004

Part 4—Registration of Private Security Operators

s. 80

- of the body corporate (as the case may be);
and
- (b) proof of the identity cannot be ascertained by other reasonably available means.
- (3) If any fingerprints are provided to the Chief Commissioner under this section, the Chief Commissioner must ensure that—
- (a) the fingerprints are destroyed—
- (i) within 28 days after they are no longer required in connection with the application to which they relate; or
- (ii) no later than 6 months from the date they were provided—
- whichever is the earlier; and
- (b) the applicant, the close associate of the applicant, the nominated person or the officer of the body corporate (as the case may be), is notified of the destruction as soon as practicable.
- (4) Fingerprints that are provided to the Chief Commissioner under this section are not admissible as evidence in any proceedings.

80. Information and documents to be provided

For the purposes of an inquiry or investigation under section 77 the Chief Commissioner may require by a notice in writing to an applicant—

- (a) that the Chief Commissioner be provided with any information, relevant to the application and specified in the notice, in the manner required by the Chief Commissioner (and verified by a statutory declaration if necessary) if the Chief Commissioner is of the opinion that the information relates to the applicant, a close associate of the applicant,

- the nominated person or an officer of the body corporate (as the case requires); or
- (b) that any record, relevant to the application and specified in the notice, be produced to the Chief Commissioner if the Chief Commissioner is of the opinion that the record relates to the applicant, a close associate of the applicant, the nominated person or an officer of the body corporate (as the case requires); or
- (c) that any record produced to the Chief Commissioner under paragraph (b) be made available for inspection and for the taking of copies.

81. Chief Commissioner may refuse to make a decision on an application for a registration

The Chief Commissioner may refuse to make a decision on an application for a private security registration if the applicant does not comply with any requirement of the Chief Commissioner under this Division in relation to the application within a reasonable time of the requirement being made.

Division 2—Granting and Renewal of Private Security Registrations

82. Circumstances in which the Chief Commissioner must refuse to grant a private security individual operator registration

- (1) The Chief Commissioner must not grant a private security individual operator registration if—
- (a) he or she is satisfied that the granting of the registration is not in the public interest; or
- (b) he or she is not satisfied that the applicant meets the probity requirements set out in sub-section (2).

Private Security Act 2004
Act No. 33/2004

Part 4—Registration of Private Security Operators

s. 83

- (2) For the purposes of sub-section (1)(b) the probity requirements are that the person—
- (a) is fit and proper; and
 - (b) is aged 18 years or more; and
 - (c) has not contravened or failed to comply with any provision of this Act, the regulations or any corresponding previous enactment, to the extent that warrants the refusal of the registration; and
 - (d) is not a person in relation to whom—
 - (i) not more than 10 years have expired since that person was convicted of an indictable offence that in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner would render the person unsuitable to hold a private security registration; or
 - (ii) not more than 5 years have expired since that person has been found guilty (without a conviction being recorded) of an indictable offence that in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner would render the person unsuitable to hold a private security registration; and
 - (e) is not a person who is charged with an indictable offence that in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner would render the person unsuitable to hold a private security registration.

83. Circumstances in which the Chief Commissioner must refuse to grant a private security business registration

- (1) The Chief Commissioner must not grant a private security business registration if—
 - (a) he or she is satisfied that the granting of the registration is not in the public interest; or

Private Security Act 2004
Act No. 33/2004

Part 4—Registration of Private Security Operators

s. 83

- (b) he or she is not satisfied that each relevant person in relation to the application meets the probity requirements set out in sub-section (2); or
 - (c) he or she is satisfied that the applicant (if the applicant is a body corporate) has been convicted or found guilty of an offence, which in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner, warrants the refusal of registration; or
 - (d) the applicant, or nominated person (in the case of a body corporate) has not produced, in relation to the business—
 - (i) a certificate of currency for public liability insurance; and
 - (ii) evidence, to the satisfaction of the Chief Commissioner, of compliance with existing statutory workplace obligations; or
 - (e) he or she is not satisfied that the applicant has or will be able to obtain financial resources that are adequate to ensure the financial viability of the business.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-section (1)(b) the probity requirements are that the person—
- (a) is fit and proper; and
 - (b) is aged 18 years or more; and
 - (c) has not contravened or failed to comply with any provision of this Act, the regulations or any corresponding previous enactment, to the extent that warrants the refusal of the registration; and

Private Security Act 2004
Act No. 33/2004

Part 4—Registration of Private Security Operators

s. 83

- (d) is not a person in relation to whom—
- (i) not more than 10 years have expired since that person was convicted of an indictable offence that in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner would render the person unsuitable to hold a private security registration or to be involved or connected with a business carried on under a private security registration; or
 - (ii) not more than 5 years have expired since that person has been found guilty (without a conviction being recorded) of an indictable offence that in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner would render the person unsuitable to hold a private security registration or to be involved or connected with a business carried on under a private security registration; and
- (e) is not a person who is charged with an indictable offence that in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner would render the person unsuitable to hold a private security registration or to be involved or connected with a business carried on under a private security registration; and
- (f) has not, within the preceding 5 years, been declared bankrupt; and
- (g) is not insolvent under administration.
- (3) In this section "relevant person in relation to an application" means—
- (a) in the case of an application by a natural person for a private security business registration, the applicant for the registration and any close associate of the applicant; or

- (b) in the case of an application by a body corporate for a private security business registration, each of the following—
- (i) the nominated person for the body corporate;
 - (ii) any officer of the body corporate;
 - (iii) any close associate of the body corporate.

84. Notice that private security registration may be refused

- (1) If the Chief Commissioner is proposing not to grant a private security registration, the Chief Commissioner must, before deciding not to grant the registration, serve on the applicant a notice—
 - (a) specifying the reason why the Chief Commissioner is proposing not to grant the registration; and
 - (b) inviting the applicant to make a written submission in accordance with sub-section (2).
- (2) An applicant who has been served with a notice under sub-section (1) may, within 28 days after the day on which the applicant is served with the notice, make a submission to the Chief Commissioner concerning any reason that is specified in the notice.

85. Further consideration of application and convening of hearing

- (1) After receiving a submission within the time specified under section 84(2), the Chief Commissioner may—
 - (a) further consider the application; or
 - (b) after giving notice to the applicant, convene a hearing to further consider the application.

- (2) An applicant may be represented at a hearing by any person the applicant chooses, but is not entitled to receive any costs in respect of a hearing.
 - (3) The Chief Commissioner may arrange for an electronic recording of a hearing to be made.
 - (4) The Chief Commissioner—
 - (a) must retain any electronic recording of a hearing for a period of no less than 3 months from the date of the hearing; and
 - (b) may destroy the recording at the end of the period under paragraph (a).

86. Refusal of private security registration

The Chief Commissioner must not make a decision not to grant a registration unless the Chief Commissioner has—

- (a) considered any written submission made by the applicant within the time specified in the notice under section 84(1) for making such a submission; and
- (b) if a hearing is convened under section 85, considered any oral submission made by the applicant at the hearing, if the applicant has indicated to the Chief Commissioner within any time specified in the notice under section 85(1)(b) that he or she wishes to be heard at such a hearing.

87. Application and registration fees

- (1) The prescribed application fee for an application for registration under this Part must be paid by the person applying for the registration.
 - (2) The prescribed registration fee for registration under this Part must be paid by the holder of the registration.

- (3) Sub-sections (1) and (2) do not apply to a person who applies for a private security business registration and who is in partnership with another person who has paid an application fee and registration fee prescribed for the registration to carry on the business which is carried on by the partnership.

88. Chief Commissioner may impose conditions on registration

The Chief Commissioner may impose a condition on a private security registration—

- (a) relating to any of the following—
- (i) the carriage and use of equipment to be used in carrying on the activities authorised by the registration;
 - (ii) the notification of any serious medical or psychiatric condition or impairment that directly impacts on the registration holder's ability to carry on the activities authorised under the registration;
 - (iii) supervision of the holder of the registration in carrying on the activities authorised by the registration; or
- (b) that is prescribed; or
- (c) that the Chief Commissioner thinks fit to impose.

89. Failure to comply with registration condition

The holder of a private security registration must comply with any conditions imposed on the registration.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

90. Duration of registration

A private security registration continues in force for the period specified in the registration document, which may be up to 3 years from the grant of registration unless it is suspended or cancelled.

91. Power of Chief Commissioner to renew registration

On the expiration of a private security registration, the Chief Commissioner may renew the registration.

92. Application to renew registration

- (1) Before a private security registration expires, the holder of the registration may apply to the Chief Commissioner for the renewal of the registration.
- (2) An application under sub-section (1) must—
 - (a) be in a form approved by the Chief Commissioner; and
 - (b) contain any prescribed particulars; and
 - (c) be accompanied by any prescribed documents or information.
- (3) The powers of the Chief Commissioner under sections 77 to 81 apply in respect of an application for renewal of a private security registration as if it were an application for a private security registration.
- (4) A private security registration, in respect of which an application is made under this section, is deemed to continue in force, after the expiry of the registration period, until the Chief Commissioner makes a decision in relation to the application.

93. Circumstances in which the Chief Commissioner must refuse to renew registration

The Chief Commissioner must not renew a private security registration unless the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that all of the criteria set out in sections 82 and 83, with such modifications as are necessary, are satisfied by the applicant.

94. Sections 84 to 86 to apply as if application for renewal of registration is application for registration

Sections 84 to 86 apply in respect of an application for a renewal of a private security registration as if it were an application for a private security registration.

95. Application and renewal fees

- (1) A person who has applied for the renewal of a private security registration must pay—
 - (a) the prescribed application fee for consideration of the application by the Chief Commissioner; and
 - (b) the prescribed renewal fee for the renewal of the registration.
- (2) Sub-section (1) does not apply to a person who applies for the renewal of a private security business registration and who is in partnership with another person who has paid an application fee and renewal fee prescribed for the renewal of the registration to carry on the business that is carried on by the partnership.

96. Chief Commissioner to issue registration documents

On granting or renewing a private security registration, the Chief Commissioner must issue to the applicant a private security registration document in accordance with the regulations.

Division 3—Variation and Requested Cancellation of Private Security Registrations

97. Power of the Chief Commissioner to vary registration

- (1) The Chief Commissioner may, on the Chief Commissioner's own motion—
 - (a) vary or revoke a condition on a private security registration, other than a prescribed condition; or
 - (b) impose a condition on the registration.
- (2) Before making a variation under this section, the Chief Commissioner must—
 - (a) notify the holder of the registration; and
 - (b) allow the holder an opportunity to make written submissions.
- (3) Submissions under sub-section (2) must be made within the period specified in the notice.
- (4) The powers of the Chief Commissioner under sections 77 to 81 apply in respect of a variation made by the Chief Commissioner under this section as if it were an application for a private security registration.
- (5) In deciding whether or not to make a variation under this section, the Chief Commissioner must—
 - (a) have regard to submissions made under sub-section (2) within the period for making submissions; and
 - (b) notify the holder of the registration of his or her decision.

- (4) A person who has applied for a variation to a private security registration under this section must pay the prescribed application fee for consideration of the application by the Chief Commissioner.
 - (5) Sub-section (4) does not apply to a person who applies for a variation to a private security business registration and who is in partnership with another person who has paid the application fee prescribed for the variation to the registration to carry on the business that is carried on by the partnership.
 - (6) The powers of the Chief Commissioner under sections 77 to 81 apply in respect of an application under this section as if it were an application for a private security registration.
 - (7) The Chief Commissioner must notify the holder of the registration of his or her decision under this section.

100. Issue and surrender of registration document

- (1) On varying a private security registration under section 97, 98 or 99, the Chief Commissioner must issue to the holder of the registration that has been varied, a private security registration document in accordance with the regulations.
- (2) On a private security registration being varied under section 97, 98 or 99, the holder of the registration must surrender the registration document of the registration that has been varied to the Chief Commissioner within 7 days after the day on which the variation takes effect.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

101. Cancellation of registration or authority to carry on activity on registration holder's request

- (1) The holder of a private security registration may request that the Chief Commissioner—
 - (a) cancel the registration; or
 - (b) cancel an authority under the registration—
 - (i) to provide the services of others to carry on a class B security activity; or
 - (ii) to carry on a class B security activity.

(2) If a request is made under sub-section (1)(a), the Chief Commissioner may cancel the registration.

(3) The holder of a registration cancelled under sub-section (2) must surrender the registration document to the Chief Commissioner within 7 days after the day on which the cancellation takes effect.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

(4) If a request is made under sub-section (1)(b), the Chief Commissioner may cancel the authority.

(5) If the Chief Commissioner cancels an authority under a registration under sub-section (4), he or she must issue to the holder of the registration a private security registration document in accordance with the regulations.

(6) The holder of a registration in respect of which an authority has been cancelled under sub-section (4) must surrender the registration document to the Chief Commissioner within 7 days after the day on which the cancellation takes effect.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

Division 4—Disciplinary Proceedings

102. Definition

In this Division "disciplinary inquiry" means an inquiry under section 105.

103. Complaints

- (1) A person who is affected by the conduct of the holder of a private security registration that is carried on under the registration may make a complaint to the Chief Commissioner about that conduct.
- (2) A complaint under sub-section (1) must be made to the Chief Commissioner within 3 months of the taking place of the conduct that is the subject of the complaint, or, if the Chief Commissioner so agrees, at any later time.

104. Investigation of complaints

The Chief Commissioner must cause any complaint made under section 103 to be investigated to determine whether or not there are grounds under section 105 for conducting a disciplinary inquiry, if the complaint is not frivolous or vexatious.

105. Power of Chief Commissioner to hold disciplinary inquiry

If the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that there are grounds for believing that—

- (a) the holder of a private security registration, if that holder applied for a new registration, would be refused such a registration; or
- (b) the holder of a private security registration has contravened any condition to which the registration is subject; or

Private Security Act 2004
Act No. 33/2004

Part 4—Registration of Private Security Operators

s. 106

- (c) the holder of a private security registration has engaged in conduct in carrying on any activity authorised by the registration that is unfair, dishonest or discreditable—

the Chief Commissioner may hold an inquiry into the matter.

106. Interim suspension of registration or authority

- (1) On making a decision to conduct a disciplinary inquiry the Chief Commissioner may—
- (a) suspend the registration; or
 - (b) suspend an authority under the registration—
 - (i) to provide the services of others to carry on a class B security activity; or
 - (ii) to carry on a class B security activity.
- (2) The Chief Commissioner must serve notice of a suspension under sub-section (1) on the holder of the registration.
- (3) A notice under sub-section (2) must state the nature of the suspension and contain all the things specified in section 107(1).
- (4) A suspension under this section remains in force until—
- (a) the Chief Commissioner decides to take an action under section 111; or
 - (b) if the Chief Commissioner decides to take no action under section 111, the making of that decision.

107. Notice to registration holder who is the subject of a disciplinary inquiry

- (1) The Chief Commissioner must serve on a holder of a registration in respect of whom the Chief Commissioner has decided to hold a disciplinary inquiry a notice—
 - (a) stating that the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that there are grounds for holding a disciplinary inquiry; and
 - (b) setting out those grounds; and
 - (c) specifying whether, in the inquiry, submissions may be made orally or in writing; or
 - (d) setting out the time within which written submissions may be made to the Chief Commissioner regarding an action that he or she may take under section 111.
- (2) This section does not apply if the Chief Commissioner has served a notice on the holder under section 106(2).

108. Further notice as to oral submissions

If the Chief Commissioner has specified in a notice under section 107(1) that oral submissions may be made during the disciplinary inquiry, the Chief Commissioner must serve on the holder of the registration a notice—

- (a) advising the holder of the day on which the submissions may be made; and
- (b) advising the holder of their entitlements under section 109(1).

Private Security Act 2004
Act No. 33/2004

Part 4—Registration of Private Security Operators

s. 109

109. Procedures at oral hearing

- (1) The holder of a registration served with a notice under section 108 may make oral submissions personally or by way of a representative at the hearing.
- (2) The Chief Commissioner may adjourn the hearing at any time before or during the hearing.
- (3) At the hearing, the Chief Commissioner is not bound by rules or practice as to evidence and may inform himself or herself in relation to any matter in any manner he or she thinks appropriate.
- (4) At the hearing, the Chief Commissioner may proceed in the absence of a party or interested person who has had reasonable notice of the hearing.
- (5) The Chief Commissioner may arrange for an electronic recording of the hearing to be made.
- (6) The Chief Commissioner—
 - (a) must retain any electronic recording made of a hearing for a period of no less than 3 months from the date of the hearing; and
 - (b) may destroy the recording at the end of the period under paragraph (a).
- (7) A—
 - (a) holder of a registration appearing before a hearing; or
 - (b) person appearing before such a hearing—
is not entitled to receive any costs in respect of the hearing.

110. Powers of Chief Commissioner at disciplinary inquiry

For the purposes of a disciplinary inquiry, the Chief Commissioner has the same powers as are set out in sections 77 to 81 subject to any necessary modifications.

111. Actions Chief Commissioner may take at inquiry

If, after considering all the material available to the Chief Commissioner during a disciplinary inquiry, the Chief Commissioner is of the opinion that a ground set out under section 107(1)(b) has been established in relation to a private security registration, the Chief Commissioner may decide to do one or more of the following—

- (a) take no further action;
- (b) reprimand the holder of the registration;
- (c) impose or vary a condition on the registration;
- (d) suspend the registration for a specified period of no more than one year;
- (e) suspend an authority under the registration—
 - (i) to provide the services of others to carry on a class B security activity; or
 - (ii) to carry on a class B security activity—
for a specified period of no more than one year;
- (f) cancel the registration;
- (g) cancel an authority under the registration—
 - (i) to provide the services of others to carry on a class B security activity; or
 - (ii) to carry on a class B security activity;

- (h) order that the holder of a registration cancelled under this section not be entitled to apply for a private security registration for a specified period of no more than 5 years from the date that cancellation takes effect;
 - (i) order that the holder of a registration in respect of which an authority has been cancelled under this section, not be entitled to apply for a variation of the registration to include the authority that has been cancelled for a specified period of no more than 5 years from the date that cancellation takes effect.

112. Notice of Chief Commissioner's decision

The Chief Commissioner must notify the holder of a registration as to his or her decision under section 111 and must set out the reasons for that decision.

113. When decision under section 111 takes effect

If the Chief Commissioner decides to take an action under section 111, the decision takes effect on and from the later of—

- (a) the date that the notice under section 112 is served; or
- (b) the date that is specified by the Chief Commissioner in that notice.

114. Surrender and issue of registration document upon cancellation or suspension

- (1) The holder of a private security registration—
 - (a) cancelled or suspended under this Division by the Chief Commissioner; or
 - (b) in respect of which an authority—
 - (i) to provide the services of others to carry on a class B security activity; or

Private Security Act 2004
Act No. 33/2004

Part 4—Registration of Private Security Operators

s. 115

(ii) to carry on a class B security activity—
has been cancelled or suspended under this Division by the Chief Commissioner—must surrender the registration document in respect of that registration to the Chief Commissioner within 7 days after the day on which the cancellation or suspension takes effect.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

- (2) On suspending or cancelling an authority under a private security registration under this Division—
- (a) to provide the services of others to carry on a class B security activity; or
 - (b) to carry on a class B security activity—
- the Chief Commissioner must issue to the holder of the registration a private security registration document in accordance with the regulations.

115. Inquiry not prevented by other proceedings

The Chief Commissioner may hold a disciplinary inquiry even though the grounds for the inquiry
concern a person who is—

- (a) the holder of a private security registration;
or
- (b) a close associate of the holder of a private security registration; or
- (c) if the holder of the private security registration is a body corporate, the nominated person or an officer of the body corporate—

and that person is the subject of proposed or current criminal proceedings that relate to those grounds.

116. Court may cancel or suspend registration

If, in any proceedings before a court—

- (a) the holder of a private security registration is convicted or found guilty of an indictable offence or an offence against this Act or the regulations; and
- (b) the court is of the opinion that the registration should be suspended or cancelled, the court may—
 - (i) order that the registration is suspended for a period not exceeding one year and that the registration document be surrendered to the court; or
 - (ii) order that the registration is cancelled and that the registration document be surrendered to the court and that the holder of the registration not be entitled to apply for such a registration within a specified period of no more than 5 years from the date on which the cancellation takes effect; or
 - (iii) refer the matter to the Chief Commissioner.

117. Surrender of registration document

- (1) The holder of a registration suspended or cancelled under section 116 must surrender the registration document to the court within 7 days after the day notified to the holder as the day on which the suspension or cancellation (as the case may be) takes effect.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

- (2) The Registrar or other relevant officer of the court must immediately forward any registration document surrendered under sub-section (1) and a copy of the order under section 116(b) to the Chief Commissioner.

118. Return of registration document

If a private security registration is suspended under section 116, the Chief Commissioner on receiving the registration document under section 117 must cause the registration document to be returned to the holder at the end of the suspension period.

Division 5—Temporary Permits

119. Temporary interstate visitor permit to carry on activity

- (1) A person who ordinarily resides in another State or Territory, may apply to the Chief Commissioner for a permit to carry on one or more class B security activities in Victoria that may be authorised to be carried on by a private security individual operator registration if—
- (a) the person produces evidence to the satisfaction of the Chief Commissioner that the person is licensed or registered or otherwise authorised in his or her State or Territory of residence to carry on the activity or activities; or
 - (b) if the law of the State or Territory in which the person is resident does not require a person to be licensed or registered or otherwise authorised to carry on the activity or activities, the Chief Commissioner is satisfied as to the suitability of the person to carry on the activity or activities.

- (2) The holder of a permit under this section does not commit an offence against section 11 or 12 while acting under and in accordance with the permit.

120. Temporary interstate visitor permit to carry on the business of providing services

- (1) A person who ordinarily resides in another State or Territory, may apply to the Chief Commissioner for a permit to carry on the business of providing services of other persons to carry on one or more class B security activities in Victoria that may be authorised by a private security business registration if—
- (a) the person produces evidence to the satisfaction of the Chief Commissioner that the person is licensed or registered or otherwise authorised in his or her State or Territory of residence to carry on such a business; or
 - (b) if the law of the State or Territory in which the person is resident does not require a person to be licensed or registered or otherwise authorised to carry on such a business, the Chief Commissioner is satisfied as to the suitability of the person to carry on the business.
- (2) The holder of a permit under this section does not commit an offence against section 9 or 10 while acting under and in accordance with the permit.

121. Procedure for applications for permits

- (1) A person may apply for a permit under this Division in the form and manner approved by the Chief Commissioner.
- (2) An application for a permit must be accompanied by proof of identity of the applicant, being, if the Chief Commissioner so requires, proof by way of the specified identification method.

129. Registered address

- (1) The holder of a private security business licence or a private security business registration must specify to the Chief Commissioner at the time at which the licence or registration is granted (as the case requires) an address at which the holder carries on business, to which all communications and notices may be addressed.
- (2) If the holder of a private security business licence or a private security business registration ceases to carry on business at the address specified under sub-section (1), the holder must, within 7 days after the day on which the business ceases to be carried on, notify the Chief Commissioner in writing of an address at which the holder continues to carry on business under the licence or registration (as the case may be) to which all communications and notices may be addressed.
Penalty: 10 penalty units.
- (3) The holder of a private security individual operator licence or a private security individual operator registration must specify to the Chief Commissioner at the time at which the licence or registration is granted (as the case requires) an address of the individual operator to which all communications and notices may be addressed.
- (4) If the holder of a private security individual operator licence or a private security individual operator registration changes from the address specified under sub-section (1), the holder must, within 7 days after the day on which the change is carried out, notify the Chief Commissioner in writing of an address of the individual operator to which all communications and notices may be addressed.
Penalty: 10 penalty units.

130. Advertisements to contain licence or registration number

The holder of a private security licence or a private security registration must take all reasonable steps to ensure that any published advertisement relating to, or in connection with, the business, includes the number of the licence or registration (as the case may be).

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

131. Offence to provide or employ unlicensed persons

- (1) The holder of a private security business licence must not provide the services of another person to carry on a class A security activity if the person does not hold a private security individual operator licence that authorises the carrying on of that activity.

Penalty: 120 penalty units in the case of a natural person;

240 penalty units in the case of a body corporate.

- (2) A person must not employ or engage another person to carry on a class A security activity unless the person reasonably believes that the other person holds a private security individual operator licence that authorises the carrying on of that activity.

Penalty: 120 penalty units in the case of a natural person;

240 penalty units in the case of a body corporate.

132. Offence to provide or employ unregistered persons

- (1) The holder of a private security business registration must not provide the services of another person to carry on a class B security activity if the person does not hold a private security individual operator registration that authorises the carrying on of that activity.

Penalty: 120 penalty units in the case of a natural person;
240 penalty units in the case of a body corporate.

- (2) A person must not employ or engage another person to carry on a class B security activity unless the person reasonably believes that the other person holds a private security individual operator registration that authorises the carrying on of that activity.

Penalty: 120 penalty units in the case of a natural person;
240 penalty units in the case of a body corporate.

133. Requirement to display licence or registration document at business premises

The holder of a private security business licence or a private security business registration must conspicuously display a copy of the licence document or registration document (as the case may be) at each premises from which the business authorised by the licence or registration (as the case may be) is carried on.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

134. Permanent records to be kept

- (1) The holder of a private security business licence and the holder of a private security individual operator licence who carries on any class A security activity (not being employed to carry on that activity) must—
- (a) keep permanent records of the prescribed particulars relating to the carrying on of the holder's business or the carrying on of any class A security activity (as the case may be) for a period of at least 5 years; and
 - (b) ensure that the records are accurate, legible and kept in good order.

Penalty: 40 penalty units.

- (2) The holder of a private security business registration and the holder of a private security individual operator registration who carries on any class B security activity (not being employed to carry on that activity) must—
- (a) keep permanent records of the prescribed particulars relating to the carrying on of the holder's business or the carrying on of any class B security activity (as the case may be) for a period of at least 5 years; and
 - (b) ensure that the records are accurate, legible and kept in good order.

Penalty: 40 penalty units.

135. False or misleading statements and particulars

A person must not knowingly in any application, written reference or other document required for the purposes of an application under this Act—

- (a) make a statement that is false or misleading in a material particular; or

Private Security Act 2004
Act No. 33/2004

Part 5—General Provisions Applying to Licences and Registrations

s. 136

- (b) furnish any particulars that are false or misleading; or
 - (c) omit to furnish any particulars required to be furnished under this Act.

Penalty: 60 penalty units.

136. Documents submitted by bodies corporate to be completed by nominated person

Every application or document required to be furnished by a body corporate under this Act or the regulations must be completed by the nominated person, who must furnish accurately all information given in respect of that body corporate.

Penalty: 40 penalty units.

PART 6—PARTICULAR PROVISIONS FOR CROWD CONTROLLERS

137. Definitions

In this Part—

"private security crowd controller business licence" means a private security business licence that authorises the holder to provide the services of crowd controllers;

"completed register" means a register required under section 139(3) to be kept by the manager of an activity.

138. Crowd controllers must wear identification

The holder of a private security individual operator licence that authorises a person to act as a crowd controller must wear identification in accordance with the requirements of the regulations at all times while acting as a crowd controller.

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

139. Duties of activity manager as to register

- (1) If one or more crowd controllers are employed or retained at a public place, the manager of the activity at the public place for which the crowd controllers are employed or retained, must, for each day for which any such crowd controller is so employed or retained, ensure that there is available at that public place, a register in which the information required to be entered under section 142 may be so entered.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) The manager of an activity at a public place at which one or more crowd controllers are employed or retained must ensure that, for each

Private Security Act 2004
Act No. 33/2004

Part 6—Particular Provisions for Crowd Controllers

s. 140

day for which each crowd controller is so employed or retained, the crowd controller properly enters in the register the information required to be entered under section 142.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (3) The manager of an activity at a public place at which one or more crowd controllers are employed or retained must ensure that the register, in which the information has been entered in accordance with section 142, is kept in his or her possession—
- (a) at that public place; or
 - (b) if the activity for which the crowd controllers have been employed or retained is of a temporary nature, at the usual place of business of the manager—for a period of 5 years from the day on which the information is required to be entered.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

140. Duties of business licence holder as to register

- (1) The holder of a private security crowd controller business licence who provides the services of a person to act as a crowd controller at a public place must, for each day for which the holder so provides those services, provide to the person who is managing the activity for which the services are being provided the register that is required to be made available under section 139(1).

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) The holder of a private security crowd controller business licence who provides the services of a person to act as a crowd controller at a public place must ensure that, for each day for which the crowd controller so acts, the crowd controller properly enters in the register made available at that public place under section 139(1) the information required to be entered under section 142.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (3) The holder of a private security crowd controller business licence who provides the services of a person to act as a crowd controller at a public place must ensure that a copy of the register made available at that place under section 139(1), in which the information has been entered in accordance with section 142, is obtained and kept in the licence holder's possession at the usual place of business of the licence holder for a period of 5 years from the day on which the information is required to be entered.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

141. Duties of crowd controller and manager as to register

- (1) If a person, who is licensed to do so under this Act, is acting as a crowd controller at a public place that person must, for each day for which he or she so acts, enter in the register, made available under section 139(1), the information required to be entered under section 142(1).

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) The manager of an activity at a public place at which one or more crowd controllers are being employed or retained must, for each day for which any such crowd controller is employed or retained, enter in the register, made available under section 139(1), the information required to be entered under section 142(2).

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

142. Information required to be entered in the register

- (1) The following information is the information that is required to be entered in a register (made available under section 139(1)) by a crowd controller—
- (a) the date of the day on which the crowd controller is acting as a crowd controller; and
 - (b) the licence number and full name of the crowd controller; and
 - (c) in the case of a crowd controller whose services are being provided by the holder of a private security crowd controller business licence, the name of the licence holder and address of the usual place of business of the licence holder; and
 - (d) details of the identification worn by the crowd controller in accordance with this Part; and
 - (e) in relation to any incident involving the crowd controller, the prescribed details relating to the incident; and
 - (f) any other information required by the regulations.
- (2) The following information is the information that is required to be entered in a register (made available under section 139(1)) by the manager of an activity at a public place at which one or more crowd controllers are being employed or retained—
- the address of the public place at which any such crowd controllers are being so employed or retained.

- (3) In this section "incident" means any action in which a crowd controller—
- (a) makes forcible physical contact with a member of the public at or in the vicinity of the place where the crowd controller is so acting; or
 - (b) restrains a member of the public at, or in the vicinity of, the place where the crowd controller is so acting; or
 - (c) ejects a member of the public from the place where the crowd controller is so acting.

143. Entry of premises to inspect completed register or copy

A member of the police force or an authorised person may enter any premises where a completed register or a copy of such a register is required to be kept under this Part, at any reasonable time, in order to inspect the completed register or copy to ascertain whether this Act and the regulations are being complied with.

144. Completed register may be copied

A member of the police force or an authorised person may make copies of, or take extracts from, a completed register or a copy of such a register during an inspection under section 143.

145. Powers of police and authorised persons to seize completed register or copy

A member of the police force or an authorised person may, during an inspection of a completed register or copy of such a register under section 143, seize the completed register or a copy if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that there has been a contravention of this Act or the regulations and the seizure is necessary—

- (a) for the purposes of investigation into the alleged contravention; or
 - (b) to enable evidence to be obtained for the purpose of any proceedings under this Act or the regulations.

146. Completed register or copy may be retained for copying

A member of the police force or an authorised person may retain a completed register or a copy of such a register seized under section 145 in order to make copies of, or take extracts from, the completed register or copy.

147. Retention and return of seized completed register or copy

- (1) If a member of the police force or an authorised person seizes a completed register or a copy of such a register under section 145, the member or authorised person must take reasonable steps to return the completed register or copy to the person from whom it was seized if the reason for its seizure no longer exists.
 - (2) If the completed register or copy has not been returned within 3 months after it was seized, the member or authorised person must take reasonable steps to return it unless—
 - (a) proceedings for the purpose for which the completed register or copy was retained have commenced within that 3 month period and those proceedings (including any appeal) have not been completed; or
 - (b) the Magistrates' Court makes an order under section 148 extending the period during which the completed register or copy may be retained.

148. Magistrates' Court may extend 3 month period for retention of completed register or copy

- (1) A member of the police force or an authorised person may apply to the Magistrates' Court within 3 months after seizing a completed register or a copy of such a register under section 145 for an extension of the period for which the member or authorised person may retain the completed register or copy.
- (2) The Magistrates' Court may order such an extension if it is satisfied that retention of the completed register or copy is necessary—
 - (a) for the purposes of an investigation into whether a contravention of this Act or the regulations has occurred; or
 - (b) to enable evidence of a contravention of this Act or the regulations to be obtained for the purposes of a proceeding under this Act.
- (3) The Magistrates' Court may adjourn an application to enable notice of the application to be given to any person.

149. Evidentiary value of documents certified by police or authorised person

A document certified by a member of the police force or an authorised person to be a true copy or extract of a completed register or a copy of such a register seized by a member of the police force or an authorised person under section 145 is admissible in any proceedings as evidence of the contents of that completed register or copy.

PART 7—REVIEW BY VICTORIAN CIVIL AND ADMINISTRATIVE TRIBUNAL

150. Review by VCAT

- (1) A person, whose interests are affected by the relevant decision, may apply to the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal for review of—
- (a) a decision of the Chief Commissioner refusing an application to grant a private security licence or a private security registration; or
 - (b) a decision of the Chief Commissioner to impose conditions on such a licence or registration (as the case may be); or
 - (c) a decision of the Chief Commissioner refusing an application to renew such a licence or registration (as the case may be); or
 - (d) a decision of the Chief Commissioner to vary such a licence or registration (as the case may be); or
 - (e) a decision of the Chief Commissioner refusing an application to vary such a licence or registration (as the case may be); or
 - (f) a decision of the Chief Commissioner to take an action under section 56 or 111 in relation to such a licence or registration (as the case may be); or
 - (g) a decision of the Chief Commissioner refusing an application to issue, or imposing a condition on, a permit under Division 6 of Part 3 or a permit under Division 5 of Part 4; or

Private Security Act 2004
Act No. 33/2004

Part 7—Review by Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal

- (h) any request made for information made by the Chief Commissioner in the course of conducting an investigation or making an inquiry under section 23 or 80, being a request that is unreasonable or not related to the purposes of the investigation or inquiry.
- (2) Sub-section (1) does not apply if the relevant decision is a refusal of the Chief Commissioner to grant an application under this Act because any one or more of the following persons is a prohibited person (within the meaning of Part 3)—
- (a) the applicant;
 - (b) a close associate of the applicant;
 - (c) if the applicant is a body corporate, the nominated person or an officer of the body corporate.

151. Time period for making application for review

An application for review under section 150 must be made within 28 days of the later of—

- (a) the day on which the decision is made; or
 - (b) if, under the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 1998, the person requests a statement of reasons for the decision, the day on which the statement of reasons is given to the person or the person is informed under section 46(5) of that Act that a statement of reasons will not be given.

PART 8—INSPECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

Division 1—Inspection powers

152. Appointment of authorised persons

- (1) The Chief Commissioner may, by instrument, appoint any person who is—
 - (a) employed in the administration of this Act; and
 - (b) qualified to act as an authorised person—to be an authorised person for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The Chief Commissioner must, in an instrument of appointment under sub-section (1), specify the period for which the person is appointed.
- (3) The Chief Commissioner must give an identity card to each person appointed under sub-section (1) which must set out—
 - (a) the name of the person so appointed; and
 - (b) the name of the person who has appointed that person; and
 - (c) the period for which the person is appointed; and
 - (d) the purposes for which the person is appointed.

153. Offence to hinder or obstruct

- (1) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, hinder or obstruct an authorised person or a member of the police force who is exercising any function under this Act.

Penalty: 60 penalty units.

- (2) It is a reasonable excuse to an offence under subsection (1) if the member of the police force or authorised person (as the case requires) did not, before exercising the function under this Act—
- (a) identify himself or herself; or
 - (b) inform the person that it is an offence to hinder or obstruct a person who is exercising such a function.

154. Warrants to search premises

- (1) A member of the police force may apply to a magistrate for the issue of a search warrant in relation to particular premises, if the member believes on reasonable grounds that an offence against this Act or the regulations is being or is about to be committed.
- (2) If the magistrate is satisfied by the evidence on oath, whether oral or by affidavit, that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that an offence against this Act or the regulations is being or is about to be committed, the magistrate may issue a search warrant authorising the member named in the warrant and any assistants the member considers necessary—
- (a) to enter the premises named or described in the warrant; and
 - (b) to search for and seize any evidence of the offence named or described in the warrant.
- (3) In addition to any other requirement, a search warrant issued under this section must state—
- (a) the offence suspected; and
 - (b) the premises to be searched; and
 - (c) a description of the evidence to be searched for; and

- (d) any conditions to which the warrant is subject; and
 - (e) whether entry is authorised to be at any time or during stated hours; and
 - (f) a day, not later than 7 days after the issue of the warrant, on which the warrant ceases to have effect.
- (4) A search warrant must be issued in accordance with the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 and in the prescribed form under that Act.
 - (5) The rules to be observed with respect to search warrants set out by or under the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 extend and apply to warrants under this section.
 - (6) A person executing a warrant under this section must prepare a list of any evidence seized under this section and must give a copy of the list or record of the evidence so seized to the occupier of the premises.

155. Announcement before entry

- (1) Before executing a search warrant, the member named in the warrant or person assisting must announce that he or she is authorised by warrant to enter the premises and give any person at the premises an opportunity to allow entry to the premises.
- (2) The member or a person assisting the member need not comply with sub-section (1) if he or she believes, on reasonable grounds, that immediate entry to the premises is required to ensure—
 - (a) the safety of any person; or
 - (b) that the effective execution of the search warrant is not frustrated.

156. Copy of the warrant to be given to occupier

If the occupier or another person who apparently represents the occupier is present at the premises when a search warrant is being executed, the member must—

- (a) identify himself or herself to the person as a member of the police force; and
- (b) give that person a copy of the execution copy of the warrant.

Division 2—Enforcement

157. Proceedings for offences

The Chief Commissioner, an authorised person or a member of the police force may take proceedings for an offence against this Act or the regulations.

158. Evidence of matters relating to register

A certificate certifying any matter relating to the contents of the register kept by the Chief Commissioner under section 173, and purporting to be signed by the Chief Commissioner or a person appointed as a delegate of the Chief Commissioner for the purposes of this section, is admissible in any proceedings as evidence of the matters appearing in the certificate.

159. Liability of officers of body corporate for offences committed by the body corporate

If a body corporate is guilty of an offence against this Act or any regulation, any officer of the body corporate who was in any way, by act or omission, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in or a party to the commission of the offence is also guilty of that offence and liable to the penalty for that offence.

160. How to determine state of mind of a body corporate

If, in any proceeding for an offence against this Act or the regulations it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a body corporate in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show that—

- (a) the conduct was engaged in by an officer, employee or agent of the body corporate within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority; and
- (b) the officer, employee or agent had that state of mind.

161. Liability of body corporate or holder of licence or registration for acts of officers, employees or agents

- (1) If an officer, employee or agent of a body corporate, that is the holder of a private security licence or a private security registration, engages in conduct on behalf of the body corporate within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority, the body corporate must be taken, for the purposes of prosecution for an offence against this Act or the regulations, also to have engaged in the conduct unless the body corporate establishes that it took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the conduct.
- (2) If an officer, employee or agent of the holder of a private security licence or the holder of a private security registration engages in conduct on behalf of the holder within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority, the holder must be taken, for the purposes of prosecution for an offence against this Act or the regulations, also to have engaged in the conduct, unless the holder establishes that he or she took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the conduct.

162. Service of documents

A notice or other document required or authorised by this Act or the regulations to be served on or given to a person is deemed to have been duly served on or given to the person—

- (a) if delivered personally to the person; or
 - (b) if left with an adult person at the premises that is the last known place of residence or business of the person on or to whom the notice or document is to be served or given;
or
 - (c) if sent to the person by post at the registered address of the person.

PART 9—INFRINGEMENT NOTICES

163. Power to serve a notice

A member of the police force or an authorised person may serve an infringement notice on any person that he or she has reason to believe has committed—

- (a) an offence against section 59(1), 62(1), 114(1), 117(1), 128(3), 129(2), 129(4), 133, 134(1), 134(2), 138, 141(1), 176(1) or 176(2); or
- (b) a prescribed offence against the regulations.

164. Form of notice

An infringement notice must be in a form approved by the Chief Commissioner and must set out all the following matters—

- (a) the date of the notice;
 - (b) the provision of this Act or the regulations that creates the offence;
 - (c) the date, time and place of the alleged offence;
 - (d) the nature and a brief description of the alleged offence;
 - (e) the infringement penalty for the alleged offence set out in the regulations;
 - (f) the manner in which the infringement penalty may be paid;
 - (g) the time (not being less than 28 days after the date on which the notice is served) within which the infringement penalty must be paid;
 - (h) that, if the amount of the infringement penalty is paid before the end of the time specified in the notice, the matter will not be brought before the Magistrates' Court unless the notice is withdrawn within 28 days after the date on which it was served;

- (i) that the person is entitled to disregard the notice and defend any proceedings in respect of the alleged offence in the Magistrates' Court;
- (j) any other prescribed particulars.

165. Late payment of penalty

A member of the police force or an authorised person may accept payment of the infringement penalty even after the expiration of the time for payment stated in the infringement notice if—

- (a) neither a charge has been filed nor a courtesy letter served under Part 2 of Schedule 7 to the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 in respect of the offence to which the infringement penalty relates; and
- (b) the infringement notice has not been withdrawn.

166. Withdrawal of notice

- (1) A member of the police force or an authorised person may withdraw an infringement notice issued by a member of the police force or an authorised person under this Part within 28 days after it was served.
- (2) The Chief Commissioner may withdraw an infringement notice issued by a member of the police force or an authorised person under this Part within 28 days after it was served.
- (3) The withdrawal of an infringement notice is to be effected by serving a withdrawal notice on the person on whom the infringement notice was served.

- (4) If the penalty sought in the infringement notice has been paid before the notice is withdrawn, the amount of the penalty must be refunded on the notice being withdrawn, and the Consolidated Fund is, to the necessary extent, appropriated accordingly.
 - (5) Proceedings for the offence in respect of which the infringement notice has been served may still be taken or continued despite the withdrawal of the notice.

167. Payment exiates offence

If an infringement notice is not withdrawn and the infringement penalty is paid within the time specified in the notice or payment is accepted in accordance with section 165 then—

- (a) the person on whom the notice was served has exiated the offence by that payment; and
- (b) no proceedings may be taken against that person in respect of that offence; and
- (c) no conviction is to be taken to have been recorded against that person for the offence.

168. Application of penalty

- (1) An infringement penalty paid under this Part must be applied in the same way as a fine paid under an order of a court made on an offender being convicted or found guilty of the offence to which the infringement penalty relates.
- (2) The payment of an infringement penalty under this Part is not and must not be taken to be—
 - (a) an admission of guilt in relation to the offence; or

- (b) an admission of liability for the purpose of any civil claim or proceeding arising out of the same occurrence, and the payment does not in any way affect or prejudice any such claim or proceeding.
- (3) The payment of an infringement penalty under this Part must not be referred to in any report provided to a court for the purpose of determining sentence for any offence.

169. Prosecution after service of infringement notice

A charge may be filed in respect of an offence to which an infringement notice relates if—

- (a) the infringement penalty has not been paid within the time for payment specified in the notice or in accordance with section 165; or
- (b) the notice is withdrawn.

170. Enforcement of infringement penalty

Payment of the infringement penalty may be enforced in accordance with Part 2 of Schedule 7 to the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 if—

- (a) the infringement notice is an infringement notice within the meaning of Schedule 7 to that Act; and
- (b) the infringement penalty has not been paid within the time specified in the notice or in accordance with section 165; and
- (c) the notice has not been withdrawn; and
- (d) a charge has not been filed in accordance with section 169.

PART 10—GENERAL

171. Chief Commissioner may delegate functions

The Chief Commissioner may, by instrument, delegate any of his or her functions under this Act or the regulations, other than this power of delegation to—

- (a) a member of the force; or
- (b) a police reservist appointed under Part VI of the Police Regulation Act 1958; or
- (c) a protective services officer appointed under Part VIA of the Police Regulation Act 1958; or
- (d) an employee within the meaning of the Public Administration Act 2004; or
- (e) a class of the people specified in paragraphs (a) to (d).

S. 171(d)
amended by
No. 108/2004
s. 117(1)
(Sch. 3 item 161).

172. Chief Commissioner may approve training requirements etc.

- (1) The Chief Commissioner may approve any of the following—
 - (a) security industry training or other requirements for the purposes of section 25(3), 26(3)(b) or 31(1)(a)(i); or
 - (b) a security industry training provider to provide any training requirement approved under paragraph (a);

- (c) a security industry organisation for the purposes of section 26(3)(a).
- (2) The Chief Commissioner may vary or revoke any approval given under this section and may impose conditions on any such approval.

173. Chief Commissioner to keep register

- (1) The Chief Commissioner must keep a register of holders of private security licences, holders of private security registrations and holders of permits under Division 6 of Part 3 and Division 5 of Part 4 in accordance with the prescribed procedure for keeping the register and containing the prescribed particulars.
- (2) A person may, for the purpose of enabling verification of whether a person is licensed or registered under this Act, inspect the part of the register that has been prescribed for the purposes of such inspections.
- (3) The Chief Commissioner must ensure that the part of the register that has been prescribed for the purposes of sub-section (2) is made available for inspection.

174. Requirement to notify Chief Commissioner of changes to close associates

- (1) If—
 - (a) at any time during the course of a private security business licence a person becomes a close associate of the holder of the licence, or a person ceases to be a close associate of the holder of the licence; or
 - (b) at any time during the course of a private security business registration a person becomes a close associate of the holder of the registration, or a person ceases to be a close associate of the holder of the registration—

the holder must immediately notify the Chief Commissioner of that fact.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

(2) A notice under sub-section (1) must—

- (a) be in writing; and
- (b) set out the name and address of the person who has become, or ceased to be, a close associate (as the case requires); and
- (c) be signed by each close associate specified in the notice; and
- (d) be accompanied by any prescribed documents or information.

175. Body corporate to notify Chief Commissioner of changes to officers

(1) If—

- (a) at any time during the course of a private security business licence held by a body corporate a person becomes, or ceases to be, an officer of the body corporate; or
- (b) at any time during the course of a private security business registration held by a body corporate a person becomes, or ceases to be, an officer of the body corporate—the body corporate must immediately notify the Chief Commissioner of that fact.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) A notice under sub-section (1) must—
- (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) set out the name and address of the person who has become, or ceased to be, the officer of the body corporate; and
 - (c) be accompanied by any prescribed documents or information.

176. Requirement to notify Chief Commissioner of criminal charges

- (1) If at any time during the course of a private security licence—
- (a) the holder of the licence, if a natural person; or
 - (b) a close associate of the holder of the licence; or
 - (c) if the holder is a body corporate, the nominated person or an officer of the body corporate—is charged with a particular indictable offence or a disqualifying offence within the meaning of Part 3, the holder, close associate, nominated person or officer (as the case may be) must notify the Chief Commissioner in writing, within 7 days of being charged, of the offence with which the person has been charged and the date and place of the hearing.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

- (2) If at any time during the course of a private security registration—
- (a) the holder of the registration, if a natural person; or
 - (b) a close associate of the holder of the registration; or

- (c) if the holder is a body corporate, the nominated person or an officer of the body corporate—

is charged with an indictable offence, the holder, close associate, nominated person or officer (as the case may be) must notify the Chief Commissioner in writing, within 7 days of being charged, of the offence with which the person has been charged and the date and place of the hearing.

Penalty: 20 penalty units.

177. Annual reporting

The Chief Commissioner must provide by 1 October each year a report to the Minister that includes the following information—

- (a) the number of applications relating to the granting, renewal or variation of private security business licences, private security individual operator licences, private security business registrations and private security individual operator registrations made to the Chief Commissioner during the financial year immediately preceding the report;
- (b) the number of such applications that are considered by the Chief Commissioner during the financial year immediately preceding the report;
- (c) the number of such applications granted by the Chief Commissioner during the financial year immediately preceding the report;
- (d) the number of such applications refused by the Chief Commissioner during the financial year immediately preceding the report;

Private Security Act 2004
Act No. 33/2004

Part 10—General

- (e) the number of variations made to private security business licences, private security individual operator licences, private security business registrations and private security individual operator registrations on the Chief Commissioner's own motion during the financial year immediately preceding the report;

 - (g) the number of applications referred to in paragraph (f) considered, granted or refused by the Chief Commissioner during the financial year immediately preceding the report;
 - (h) the number of, the reasons for and the outcomes of, any inquiries conducted by the Chief Commissioner during the financial year immediately preceding the report;
 - (i) the number of applications made to the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal for review of decisions made by the Chief Commissioner during the financial year immediately preceding the report and the outcome of each review;
 - (j) any other prescribed matters.

178. Statutory review of this Act

- (1) The Minister must review this Act to determine whether—
 - (a) the policy objectives of the Act remain valid; and
 - (b) the provisions of the Act are still appropriate for securing those objectives.
- (2) The Minister must undertake the review as soon as possible after the period of 3 years from the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.
- (3) The Minister must ensure that a report detailing the outcome of the review is tabled in each House of Parliament within 12 months after the end of the period of 3 years.

179. Supreme Court—Limitation of Jurisdiction

It is the intention of sections 127(1) and 127(2) to alter or vary section 85 of the Constitution Act 1975.

180. Regulations

- (1) The Governor in Council may make regulations for or with respect to prescribing—
 - (a) in relation to the register to be kept by the Chief Commissioner under section 173—

PART 11—TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

181. Definitions

In this Part—

"old Act" means the Private Agents Act 1966;

"commencement day" means the day on which this Part comes into operation.

182. Licences under old Act deemed to be private security business licences

- (1) On and from the commencement day, a licence granted under Part IIA of the old Act, in force immediately before that day, which authorised a person to carry on the business of providing other persons to carry on a class A security activity is deemed, on and from that day, to be a private security business licence that authorises the person to carry on such a business.
- (2) A licence that is deemed to be a private security business licence under sub-section (1)—
 - (a) is subject to any conditions to which the licence was subject immediately before the commencement day; and
 - (b) remains in force for the remainder of the term of the licence unless before the end of that term—
 - (i) the licence is cancelled or suspended under Part 3; or
 - (ii) a private security business licence that authorises the carrying on of such a business is granted, or refused to be granted, under Part 3 to that person—whichever is the sooner.

- (3) The holder of a licence that is deemed to be a private security business licence under sub-section (1) is not entitled to renew that licence under this Act.
 - (4) If an application has been made under Part 3 for the issue of a new licence by the holder of a licence that is deemed to be a private security business licence under sub-section (1), the licence is deemed to continue in force, after the expiry of the licence period, until the Chief Commissioner makes a decision in relation to the application or refuses to make a decision in relation to the application.

183. Licences under old Act deemed to be private security individual operator licences

- (1) On and from the commencement day, a licence granted under Part IIA of the old Act, in force immediately before that day, which authorised a person to carry on a class A security activity is deemed, on and from that day, to be a private security individual operator licence that authorises the person to carry on such an activity.
- (2) A licence that is deemed to be a private security individual operator licence under sub-section (1)—
 - (a) is subject to any conditions to which the licence was subject immediately before the commencement day; and
 - (b) remains in force for the remainder of the term of the licence unless before the end of that term—
 - (i) the licence is cancelled, or suspended under Part 3; or

- (ii) a private security individual operator licence that authorises the carrying on of such an activity is granted, or refused to be granted, under Part 3 to that person—whichever is the sooner.

- (3) The holder of a licence that is deemed to be a private security individual operator licence under sub-section (1) is not entitled to renew that licence under this Act.
- (4) If an application has been made under Part 3 for the issue of a new licence by the holder of a licence that is deemed to be a private security individual operator licence under sub-section (1), the licence is deemed to continue in force, after the expiry of the licence period, until the Chief Commissioner makes a decision in relation to the application or refuses to make a decision in relation to the application.

184. Transitional provision for security equipment installers, security advisers and bodyguards

Part 2 does not apply to a person who—

- (a) immediately before the commencement day, was a security equipment installer, security adviser or bodyguard; and
- (b) lodges an application for the appropriate licence or registration under this Act on or before 6 weeks after the commencement day—until the Chief Commissioner makes a decision in relation to the application or refuses to make a decision in relation to the application.

185. Proceedings at VCAT for review of decisions under the old Act

Any proceeding commenced in the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal to review a decision to cancel or suspend a licence granted under Part IIA of the old Act pursuant to an application under section 42A of that Act, which has not been determined by the Tribunal before the commencement day is deemed to be a proceeding pursuant to an application under Part 7 to review a decision of the Chief Commissioner to cancel or suspend the licence (as the case may be).
